- 23.5 If either Party considers the event of force majeure to be of such severity or to be continuing for such period of time that it effectively frustrates the original intention of this Agreement, then the Parties may mutually agree that this Agreement be terminated.
- 23.6 Neither Party shall be liable to the other Party for loss, damage or delays sustained by such other party arising from any event of force majeure.
- 23.7 If this Agreement is terminated by an event of force majeure pursuant to the above clause, all rights and obligations of the Parties under this Agreement shall forthwith terminate and neither Party shall have any claim against the other Party and neither Party shall be liable to each other save for any rights and liabilities accruing prior to the occurrence of the event of force majeure.

23.8 Neither Party shall be entitled to rely upon the provisions above if both Parties reasonably determine that an event of force majeure has not occurred.

23.9 For avoidance of doubt, the Parties shall continue to perform those parts of those obligations not affected, delayed or interrupted by an event of force majeure and such obligations shall, pending the outcome of this clause continue in full force and effect.
